LA BIBLIOTECA PUBLICA DR. PEDRO ALBIZU CAMPOS DE CAGUAS HELPS LAUNCH NEW CONCEPT IN CHILDREN'S BOOKS
Picture book, activity book and teacher's guide used together to take book beyond reading.

On October 22, 2008, La Biblioteca Pública Dr. Pedro Albizu Campos de Caguas celebrated the launching of a new concept in children's books. Publisher/illustrator Joy Delgado along with María Chuzema delighted 35 children from the Caguas area with a reading of "Zooprise Party / Fiesta Zoorpresa".

As a big thank you to La Biblioteca Pública Dr. Pedro Albizu Campos de Caguas, Joy Delgado on behalf of her publishing company J.O.Y. Publishing dba Laughing Zebra – Books for Children, donated two copies of the book for library use and eight additional copies for the libraries give away program to less fortunate children in Caguas.

"Zooprise Party / Fiesta Zoorpresa" is a fully bilingual story about Mori the okapi and how his friends at the zoo threw him a surprise party for his birthday. There is an activity book and a teachers guide that compliment the story to take children beyond reading. The Laughing Zebra – Books for Children website has even more activities and information to make this a truly unique and total experience for all children.

The books are available at the following places on line:
